Crestwood Indaus Care

I have been made aware of the tremendous efforts of Mr Basker Ratnam and his work with Crestwood Indaus Care.

Crestwood Indaus Care is a charitable organisation that raises funds for Indian children with intellectual disabilities and other disadvantaged communities in the Sub-Continent.

During the 2004-05 tsunami in India and Sri Lanka the organisation mobilised to provide food, finance and support to communities impacted by the natural disasters.

Mr Ratnam has worked tirelessly in establishing this organisation and I praise his efforts to assist those that are less fortunate and I encourage anyone who is considering donating to do so.

Yours sincerely
