To Whom It May Concern

I have been aware of the terrific work performed by Indaus Care for some years. Mr Basker Ratnam is the driving force behind this very worthy not for profit organisation. Subsequent to the tsunamis which hit India and Sri Lanka in 2004 and 2005, Mr Ratnam took it upon himself to assist in the relief efforts, providing food, clothing, finance and practical assistance for the thousands of people affected.

More recently, he has established a partnership with local nuns to assist in the restoration of a home for developmentally delayed children which had been ruined by the tsunami.

Mr Ratnam's efforts are first rate, and much of the activity is funded by his fundraising efforts, for which he advises he receives no fee. Any assistance you could provide would, I'm sure, be gratefully received.

Yours sincerely
